

cheshire

The Crescent bracket was commissioned by Cheshire County Council as an iconic symbol to welcome visitors to Bootle town centre

The modern styling and colour of the bracket were both tailored specifically by our ALC designer to meet the requirements of the council through a quality process of consultation that involved communication through various forms of media

Initial concepts, 3D visuals and email all combined with meetings to provide a high quality customer service that you can expect from ALC

cresecent bracket

ALC